

KEVIN BASS

Kevin Bass was born in Southern Pines, North Carolina and currently lives in Raleigh, North Carolina. He was an art major with a concentration in graphic design at Appalachian State University. He continued painting after college and has shown work across the Southeast.

His paintings are created in a series. Each series has a different format, approach and feel. The "Obscure" series is his most current work. Pieces are created using mixed media, mostly torn canvas, paper, acrylic paint, stain, enamel and sand on canvas. While his "Primal" series concentrates on abstracting the landscape. Paint is blended with sand and mica to create texture and layer upon layer are added to give the viewer a feeling of being in that environment.

Kevin continues to explore and add to each series. Offering a variety of color, texture and technique to viewers.
